United States of America v. Alfredo Davis, No. 11 CR 295 (AKH)

Dear Judge Hellerstein,

We represent Alfredo Davis in the above-referenced case, who is currently scheduled to be sentenced on July 24, 2013. We write to respectfully request that Mr. Davis's sentencing be adjourned to October 4, 2013. This is the second written request for an adjournment, and the U.S. Attorney's Office consents to this request. Mr. Davis's previous adjournment requests have been granted. Since this is an adjournment of sentencing, no other dates are scheduled in this case that would be implicated by this adjournment. It should also be noted that the government asserts that Mr. Davis is subject to a seven-year mandatory minimum in this case, pursuant to 18 USC 924(c)(1)(A), so this adjournment will not impact the duration of his imprisonment.

We are requesting this adjournment, in part, because of a recent decision by the Supreme Court of the United States, Alleyne v. United States, 133 S. Ct. 2151 (June 17, 2013), which we believe warrants further study by both the government and defense counsel in order to determine whether it carries implications related to the sufficiency of Mr. Davis's guilty plea. We have contacted your scheduling clerk in order to schedule an adjournment to mid-September, but understand that Your Honor will be overseeing a trial, and that the first convenient date thereafter for the Court is October 4, 2013, at 11:30 AM.

*Sentencing will take place on
Oct. 4, 2013, 10³⁰ - 9:30.
7/17/13*
